Board of Library Trustees in Monthly Session

Marked Increase of Patronage of Public Reading Room—Minstrel Entertainment To Be Given the First Week After Easter

The Board of Library Trustees met in regular monthly session at the Library Wednesday night, with President of the Board Jesse F. Prestwood, and Trustees Mrs. A. H. Bates, Mrs. E. A. Koenig, Rev. J. H. Oehlhoff and S. P. Woodworth present.

No business of importance came before the Board save the arranging of an entertainment, to be given immediately after Easter - the first week in April, and it was decided that, with the generous cooperation of Sonoma Valley talent, a minstrel performance would prove the most pleasing to the general public and the greatest financial success.

There has been no benefit for the Library since the Baby Show of October, 1913, and with increased patronage quite naturally there is greater demand for current literature Public literary taste in the main is best satiated with modern fiction, which is quickly read, easily digested, and the desire whetted for the later volumes of like nature. To gratisfy the many requests by patrons requires a greater expenditure than the monthly apportionment of fifty dollars warrants; therefore, the trustees feel justified in asking the public generally to assist in adding something to the its treasury, making possible the maintaining of the present flourishing condition of the Library, and its continuance of popularity with the reading public.

Figures Evince Flourising Condition of Library.

That Sonoma's Public Library is growing in popularity and an increase of interest is attested by a comparison between the reports of Librarian Miss Kate McDonell for January, 1914, and January of 1915.

Librarian's Report for January, 1915:

Total number of books issued for home use, 683; of these 415 were fiction, 239 juvenile, and 29 miscellaneous.

Magazines issued for home use, sixty-four.

Librarian's Report for January. 1914:

Total number of books issued for home use, 457. Of these, 335 were fiction, 82 juvenile, and 40 miscellaneous. Magazines issued for home use, 14.

The comparison of figures show a total gain of 226 volumes and 50 magazines issued for home use during January of 1915 over the same month last year.

During the past three months thirty-five new borrower's cards were issued--nine in November, twelve in December and thirteen in January.

New Books Placed in Library Last Month.

During the month the following new books were placed in the Library:

Beach—The Ne'er Do Well.
Bower—Good Indian.
Boyle—The Squaw Man.
Brownell--The Unseen Empire.
Dixon - The Southerner. (This volume is dedicated by the author "to our first Southern-born President since Lincoln--my friend and college-mate, Woodrow Wilson.")
Dixon —The Leopard Spots.
Deland — The Awakening of Helen Ritchie.
Ferber—Buttered Side Down.
Mulford—Bar 20.
Mulford—Bar 20 Days.
Porter—Miss Billy.
Parrish—My Lady of the South.
Sienkiewicz—Quo Vadis.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Berges, Gillett—The White Cat, donated by Harold Wade.
Jenks—Gypsy the Talking Dog, donated by Ellis Simmons.
Alger—Work and Win.
Henty — The Young Franc-Tireurs, donated by Chas. Price.

So extensive has been the demand for Harold Bell Wright's latest novel "The Eyes of the World," that a duplicate copy of the book has been placed in the Library.

Appreciated Improvements To Be Made by the City.

Library patrons are very grateful to the Board of City Trustees for the order passed by that honorable body at its regular monthly session, held last week, to complete the cement walk in front of the building to the opposite side of the street.

This is certainly a much-needed improvement and greatly appreciated by the many who frequent regularly Sonoma's public reading room, the patronage of which is increasing to a surprising and gratifying extent, as is proved by the above report compiled by Librarian Miss Kate McDonnell for the month of January.

JUSTICE CONTEST OFFICIAL RESULT

The following tabulated figures of the official canvass and of the recount in the contest brought by Ex-Justice of the Peace James C. Campbell against Lester Small who was chosen by the voters of the Sonoma Valley Township to succeed the former gentleman at the November election, will be re viewed with interest:

How Exposition Sight-Seers May Be Induced to Visit the Great Sonoma Valley

"We are agreed that we shall disregard the legal holiday of February 20th, and, legally or illegally, observe the 10th of March as a holiday. We'll be there."

So declared Frederick T. Duhring, a member of the Board of Directors of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce, Friday night of last week, at the rousing meeting held at the Sonoma County Exposition Commission headquarters in the court house at Santa Rosa, when plans were discussed relative to Sonoma Day at the Fair.

Mr. Duhring expressed the sentiment prevailing throughout the Sonoma Valley when he promised the cooperation of this section in making Sonoma County Day one of the best attended, and, therefore, most noteworthy of the Exposition.

By unanimous decision Wednesday, March 10th, was chosen as the day when this county shall take possession of the Exposition grounds and our people, to quote Albert L. Hall of San Francisco, Commissioner of Special County Events, are to be "king for a day," hosts of the world.

Mr. Hall impressed those present with the fact "that Sonoma County, distinctively and individually, had been singled out by the commission as one of the few of the greater counties whose patronage is worthy of great solicitation." Mr. Hall acknowledged that the combined display of Sonoma, Humboldt and Mendocino Counties in the California building is considered the handsomest of all exhibits of its kind.

Considerable regret has been expressed by the members of the Chamber of Commerce and residents of the Sonoma Valley generally that the Sonoma County Exhibit, which has already been placed in position, has not been contributed to by this section of the Banner County.

The fact is regrettable, to be sure, since the products of this valley compare favorably with those of other noted fruit-growing districts of California. Sonoma-grown cherries are unexcelled; our Bartlett pears are second to none, while in the production of apples—even the Gravenstein, so we have been informed by one of the best posted and most extensive fruit-buyers in the State—we are just one step ahead of the splendid Gold Ridge district, and that is certainly "going some."

No fault attaches to the Chamber of Commerce that our cherries and prunes, peaches and apples do not occupy a conspicuous place among the other county products exhibited. That body exerted itself to secure the cooperation of the horticulturists of this district in arranging a exhibit. Adverse weather conditions resulted in deteriorating fruit crops, and other disadvantages worked against the securing of a creditable and satisfactory display, hence the project was abandoned.

Yet, it seems to us that the Sonoma Valley could be advantageously exhibited in another way—we mean by a series of photographic views, preferably framed, of our spreading orchards, vine-clad hills, beautiful suburban homes, with vale and mountainous scenic grandeur in studies varied and inspiring. Distinct group views of the three great hot mineral springs—noted throughout the State as the chief health and pleasure resorts of the Golden West—would command the visitors' attention and interest.

Then, when in their most wonderful glory, we can lure to this valley with our fruit blossoms—sending masses of the odorous blooms for daily display, placarded with greetings from Sonoma, in the famed Valley of the Moon, whose orchards yielded the wealth of bloom.

We cannot exhibit our greatest resources and attractions, our marvelous climate, peerless soil and unsurpassed water, but it is possible for the Sonoma Valley to make a display far more attractive and suggestively substantial than jar upon jar of beautifully preserved, or processed branches of fruit.

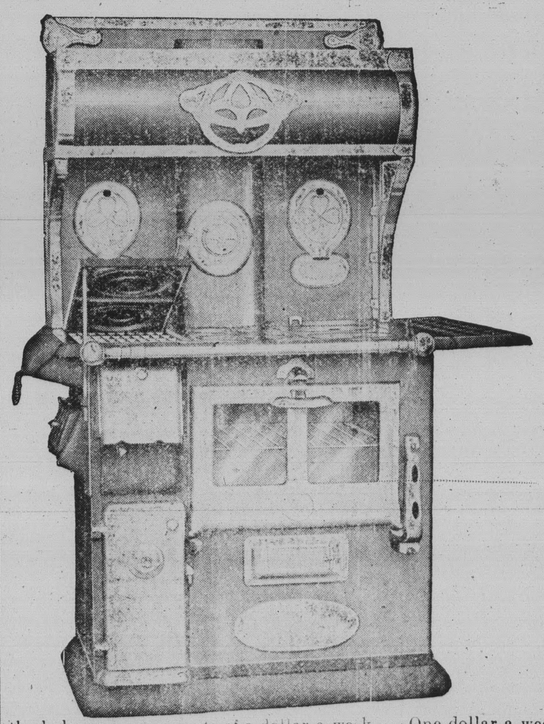
WEDGEWOOD RANGE!

Absolutely the Greatest Fuel Saver-- The Most Perfect Baker Made

The old way of buying a stove was to "pay before you tried." If the stove you bought proved a failure you were compelled "to take your medicine" and make the best of it."

The new way of buying a stove—Sonoma Valley Furniture Co. way—allows you 30 days' free trial in your own home.

Sent to Your Home on Approval



No matter how good a cook you are, no matter how careful your marketing, all your efforts will be wasted if you have to cook on a stove not properly built to meet California fuel conditions. California climate requires two distinct features in a range: It requires a range that will withstand dampness; it requires a special flue construction that will burp properly in the face of everchanging winds. The Wedgewood is the only range built along scientific principles, especially constructed to meet these peculiar climatic condition we speak of.

Arrange to-day to have this Wedgewood sent to your home on approval. You wont be out a cent if it does not live up to all our claims.

When we tell you that the Wedgewood is the only range that will cook perfectly under all conditions, we mean that it will cook better meals, with less fuel and less labor, than any other range made.

When we tell you we have the finest range built we make a very broad statement with an iron clad, money-back guarantee whereby we have everything to lose and nothing to gain if the Wedgewood range should fail to be as fine as we claim it is, after it is your own home. This is our guarantee: We will send a Wedgewood range to your home for thirty days' free trial— you to be the sole judge of its merit.

After it is in your home you can examine its beauty, cook on it, see how little fuel it uses, put it to any test that you see fit.

If it does not live up to all our claims, we will take it back and you won't be out a cent. If it fulfills all our promises, you can either send the cash or arrange to pay the balance in payments of a dollar a week. One dollar a week makes the Wedgewood easy to pay for—our thirty-day free trial proposition does away with all risk that you take in buying an ordinary range.

Arrange to-day to have a WEDGEWOOD sent to your home under this FREE trial proposition that we speak of.

Come in and See Our Full Line—we have them from $9.00 up to $65 with polished tops that need no blacking, or the old style that requires blacking—with legs or without—cast iron stove or steel, with glass doors or without. At any rate see us before buying. Your Old Stove Taken in Trade.

News of the Week from Vineburg and Schellville

Interesting Neighborhood Notes Chronicled by Our Regular Correspondnts, Easy Jim and Happy Jack, in Their Respective Districts

VINEBURG

A. W. Lehrke and family spent the week-end at New Vineburg Inn.

Miss Adele Andrieux was the guest of Sonoma friends on Tuesday afternoon last.

Dominick Colli, of San Francisco, visited his country home, "Bird Nest Cottage," Friday last.

Charles Groskopf was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Block, at their residence in El Verano, on Sunday last.

Leland Volquardson, formerly of this place, is now aboard of the United States Steamship Steward, at San Diego.

On account of the inclement weather, Sunday was a quiet day in Vineburg. but we suppose that the burg was not the only quiet place that day.

The heavy winds which prevailed during the recent storm, caused considerable damage in this vicinity by uprooting quite a number of fruit and shade trees.

The first month of 1915, January, there were twenty carloads of feed and general merchandise received at Batto's Spur—a fair beginning for the Exposition Year.

Enrico Forni, our marshal, wants to sell his diamond-studded badge, that was presented to him by the Standard Oil Company. As business is so quiet, he has no use for it. Henry, try the marshal of Baxterville; he might buy it.

Fred and Arthur Batto made a flying trip to South Vallejo, last Tuesday morning, and after transacting business with the Sperry Flour Company, returned home on the same train, via Shellville. No time for pleasure on that trip, believe me.

—Easy Jim.

SCHELLVILLE

The San Luis School reopens Monday, February 15th.

Tom Millerick was up from San Rafael this week to visit the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steiger, of Nob Hill Ranch, made a business trip to Schellville, Tuesday.

Popular Jimmy Taylor was down this way, Wednesday and called on several of his friends.

Miss Helen Johnson left for San Francisco, Wednesday, after spending a week at her farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Landsborough returned, Sunday evening, after a pleasant trip to the bay cities.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Akers entertained a few San Francisco friends at their comfortable home the week-end.

Mrs. Fred Helberg, who has been very ill at her home here, is steadily improving under the care of Dr. Thomson.

San Francisco friends and relatives had the pleasure of a visit the past week from Mrs. Harold Pauli and baby daughter Helen.

Dr. Van Sant, of San Francisco, was called to Schellville, Wednesday, to attend to two sick horses. He expects to come up again Sunday to perform an operation.

Schellville is certainly on the boom. Judging from the many fine residences erected here within the last two years will convince one of the fact. The population has increased so much that a few of our energetic farmers are contemplating running jitney busses: and again many friends will visit this town during the Fair year, and this will give them an opportunity of seeing our beautiful Valley of the Moon just for a jitney.

Happy Jack.

IMPROVEMENTS AT HANSEN HATCHERY

Seven new incubators were installed this week at the hatchery of Fred J. Hansen, near town, and early in March several more are to be added, which number—with the sixteen already operated—largely increases the chick-raising capacity of the Hansen poultry yards. Each incubator is of five-hundred-and-forty-egg capacity, thus ennabling Mr. Hansen to handle in the neighborhood of twenty-two thousand baby chicks.

Thursday of last week forty-eight hundred eggs, all White Leghorns, were placed for incubation, which goes to show that despite the high price of feed and the uncertainty of market conditions, Mr. Hansen has confidence in the industry as a profitable venture.

In the hands of such men as Mr. Hansen it is not surprising that the undertaking is a success. As Mr. Hansen says, "Success in the poultry business depends as much on the stock as good management and you must have both to succeed."

Good management and good stock are the prime contributing factors to the success of the Hansen hatchery. Mr. Hansen is prepared to furnish his patrons with thoroughbred South Carolina White Leghorns, Rhode Island Reds, Black Minorcas and Mottled Ancoras.

Mr. Hansen makes a specialty of baby chicks, hatching under the most favorable conditions, and devotes his full time to his incubators and selecting of eggs, which produce strong chicks.

Stock at the Hansen poultry yards are not foeced to lay by the use of stimulants, but are fed good, wholesome food, and have their quarters kept in a most sanitary conditions, which insures the right results at the right time and the right chicks.

In conclusion, Mr. Hansen urges those who propose embarking in the poultry industry, or who are new at the business, not to be mislead by the statement that "a chicken is a chicken," as some poultry men claim. Success will, on the contrary, be more certain and profits much larger if stock possesses great vitality and laying qualities.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Prof. and Mrs. M. H. Rowell were "At Home" to the Juniors and Seniors Friday, January 29. A most delightful time was reported by all who were present. Games were played, prizes awarded and later on delicious refreshments served.

The boys are already beginning to talk over baseball prospects for the coming season, and should, from all indications, have the best team that ever represented this High School.

Monday morning we welcomed Rea Eddrington to school, thus bringing the total enrollment of the year up to sixty-nine.

Friday afternoon the Girl's Basket Ball Team played Petaluma High School at Petaluma. The Sonoma team was badly beaten, but as this was the first game, we expect better results next time.

Local Notes of a General Character

S. B. Lewis, Dr. A. M. Thomson and Raoul Emparan were prominent local Elks to attend the "big doings" at Santa Rosa Tuesday night.

Mrs. Irving C. Gobar has been enjoying the week with relatives in San Francisco. Her sister, Miss Margaret McDonnell, who had been visiting in Sonoma, returned to her home in the metropolis Sunday.

The Index-Tribune, in connection with her host of Sonoma Valley friends, note with pleasure that Mrs. Jas. H. Albertson is convalescing from her recent serious illness. Marshal Albertson, who had been at home ministering to his wife, is again on duty genially greeting his friends.

Messrs. Collins & Mohr, of the Don Theatre, wish to state that a reward of five dollars will be paid for the arrest and conviction of anyone caught throwing peanuts in the playhouse. The practice has become so annoying to patrons that the management of the Don has determined it shall be stopped.

"Dick" Fussell returned home Saturday night from Monterey, where he had been sojourning with friends for a month. Mr. Fussell reports a good time in the old and historic California city, which is replete with points of interest to the visitor. Dick was greatly missed by the "family circle," all of whom were glad to welcome him home.

Mrs. Grover Montgomery and children, of Two Rock, have returned home after a visit at the home of City Marshal and Mrs. J. H. Albertson. Mrs. Montgomery who was well and favorably known as Nellie Sullivan, Sonoma's popular "Central," of the local Telephone Company, has a host of warm friends in this valley, from whom she receives a cordial welcome on her visits here.

Tuesday afternoon of next week, February 16th, Mrs. J. Benjamin, of El Verano, will entertain Saint Barbara's Guild. Friday afternoon, the nineteenth, Mrs. L. S. Simmons is to be hostess to Saint Margaret's Guild, and on Saturday of next week, the twentieth, Saint Barbara's Guild will start its annual Lenten Sales of Home Cooking. Articles will be displayed in the grocery department of Duhring's Store.

At a meeting of the Sonoma Valley Drum Corps, held Tuesday night, it was decided by that organization to give a grand ball Saturday night, April 12th—the first week of Easter. The committee of arrangements comprise: Alfred Warriner, Harry Quartaroli, Louis Picetti, and Leonard Thomas. Manager F. T. Hansen and Harry Quartaroli, who have the music in hand, promise something very fine.

"In the Bishop's Carriage," another great Frohman success, will be the attraction at the Don two nights next week—Thursday and Friday, February 18th and 19th. This pictured story of love and adventure is replete with all the necessary thrills as a photo-play that has made the drama one of the greatest successes of the American stage. Mary Pickford's pretty face is the "star" among the interesting cast. The popular prices of ten and twenty cents will prevail.

Friday afternoon of next week, February 19th, F. F. Nalder, Secretary of the Bureau of Correspondence Instruction of the University of California, will address the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, the subject of his discourse being "The Causes and Treatment of Crime." The subject is one of the deepest problems of the day—one on which the greatest sociologists are devoting research and study. Prof. Nalder will undoubtedly be greeted by a large audience of the thoughtful men and women of town and valley, who hope for the betterment of human society. A cordial invitation to attend is extended the general public.

Today (Saturday), February 13, is the 100th anniversary of the ratification by Congress of the peace treaty between the United States and Great Britain. At the meeting of the Sonama Valley Woman's Club, held Friday afternoon of last week, the fitting observance of the memorable anniversary was discussed and decided on. Miss Ellen Trueblood, chairman of the Peace Section, was requested to confer with the local pastors, who are cooperating by holding services in their respective churches tomorrow as follows: Rev. E. F. Brown, pastor of the Methodist Church, at the morning service. Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, at five o'clock in the afternoon, and Rev. T. M. Price, pastor of the Congregational Church, in the evening.

Mrs. J. C. Schofner and daughter, Miss May, were hostesses at a Bridge-Whist party, on Thursday afternoon, at the Schofner home near Buena Vista, at which Mrs. Schofner's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Schofner, who is here from Oregon on a visit, was the guest of honor. The reception rooms were refreshingly spring-like with clusters of daffodils and greenery, which effective color scheme was charmingly carried out at the very daintily-appointed table at which exceptionally delicious resreshments were served. Mrs. Wm. Clewe won championship honors at cards, receiving a handsome ebony tabouret. Those present were: Mesdames Landsborough, Wicker, Simmons, A.S. Luce, R. L. Watt, Wm. Clewe, H. W. Gottenberg, Haven, Burlingame and Robt. A. Poppe; Misses Anna Pemberton and Doris Clewe.

Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame, president of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, has been notified through letter by the secretary of the county council of her appointment as chairman of a committee to further the work of the establishment of a county library. The outlined work is the securing of signatures to a petition, asking the Board of Supervisors of Sonoma County to submit the proposition to the voters at the earliest possible opportunity, or, more properly, election, as the county will not be requested to go to the expense of calling a special election. Mrs. Burlingame will immediately become active in the matter and as she—like the majority of the reading public—favors the institution, her exceptionally capable energies we expect to assist materially in the establishment of this desired acquisition. While not in the least conflicting with or detracting from the patronage of the local library.

The banquet served at the El Dorado Hotel, Monday night, to a few invited guests and the members of the Moose Social Club, was an event to be remembered in fraternal circles. Tnese semi-annual feasts enjoyed by the local antlered herd are anticipated with great gusto, for they are the jolliest of affairs. The tables were loaded with an abundance of the best the market affords, which gratified the palates of the thirty-four gentlemen present. Wm. Russell presided as toastmaster, and during the discussion of the feast, splendid music was rendered by Mrs. Julius Fochetti, Jr., and Messrs. Frank Knolle, Ralph Busby and F. T. Hansen. An event of the evening was the presentation to Wm. Russell (or, more properly to Mr. and Mrs. Russell) of a handsome eight-day clock, in recognition of the zealous, untiring work for the club by energetic Mr. Russell and the assistance given by his capable wife on the occasion of the Moose Club entertainment in December. The presentation was made by Director E. Coates.

Sonoma Valley Pioneer Crosses Great Divide

Henry Clay Culberson entered into rest at the family home near this city, Tuesday, February 9th. The end was a peaceful drifting into that last sleep after years—four score and ten—of a useful and well-spent life.

The venerable, respected pioneer was born in Hillsborough, North Carolina, December 4, 1824, where his early childhood was spent. When he was twelve years old, his parents removed to Missouri, remaining there until the Mexican War of 1846, when Mr. Culberson was in government service in Mexico.

Mr. Culberson had the unusual experience of crossing the plains twice with a team of oxen—the first trip bringing him to the Sonoma Valley in 1850. The next year he returned by the way of Central America and Cuba, this later trip resulting in his gathering so extensive a fund of knowledge of land conditionns that the digging of the Panama Canal was of marked interest to him. Another trip across the plains was made in 1853.

Mr. Culberson engaged in mining until the early sixties, when he moved to Petaluma, where he embarked in business. In 1965, he moved to Sonoma, residing here continuously, honored and highly-esteemed as the sunset of life closed round him.

The deceased was wedded in 1879 to Mrs. Sarah McCoskie, one child—Miss Lydia Miriam—being born of this union. A step-daughter, Mrs. Effie McCoskie Searcy of Modesto, and a son (by a former marriage) W. A. Culberson of Los Angeles, survive with their widowed mother and sister the passing of this much-loved and worthy gentleman.

Despite his advanced age, and years of wearisome suffering, Mr. Culberson wonderfully retained to the last his remarkably keen, perceptive brain faculties.

The funeral was held from the family residence yesterday (Friday) afternoon, the interment being in Mountain Cemetery.

TRY US FOR JOB WORK

A LENTEN THOUGHT

BY J. HENRY OEHLHOFF

Man is a strange combination of good and evil. He can rise or fall. He can yield to tempatation or overcome it. He can be an animal or a man. He is ever at the parting of the ways. Lent is the time set aside by the Church to assist men to rise, to overcome; to assist him upward toward Manhood.

Lent is a familiar word, a much-abused word, a word often spoken in jest. People here in Sonoma are using the word—even people outside those Churches which make a practice of "keeping Lent." The word (first found after 1275) means "spring." It comes from the same stem as "length," and doubtless refers to the lengthening of the days at this time of the year. Strictly speaking, the word now refers to the forty days' fast just before Easter. This fast used to be short, rigid and strict—forty hours; then, in the seventh century, it became our Lent of forty week days.

But the word counts for very little though the lessons of Lent count for much, and the truths of Lent are beyond measure. The lessons of Lent are devotion, and the truths of Lent are truths of manhood and womanhood.

Ask yourself two questions: What is your chief concern—your body or your soul? the gold you can gain or your character? For life is worth just the truth and the honor and the courage it holds for the service of others and for yourself. And service spells character and character is life.

Lent is the time for us to store up those energies which make for life—real life!

Lent is the time for us to take stock (just as shop-keepers take stock of their goods). Lent is the time to take stock of our characters, to examine them, to take note of the weaknesses, to observe the wants and the deficiencies, and then to fill them in.

Again, Lent is the time to break up the hardened soul. Just as nature seems to start afresh each springtime, se ought we take Lent as the opportunity for starting anew. In the spring the farmer breaks ground. Lent is a springtime for the soul. "Break up your fallow ground!" Renew your soul! Renew your soul by renewing your body. Here lies the true secret of the Lenten fast—make your body stronger by living a more regular life; by allowing some of your emotions a rest; by eliminating some of the luxuries from your lise.

Do not fast to mortify the flesh, but fast in order that you may make a more fitting home for your soul.

Lent is the time to move forward toward real manhood and womanhood. In other words, Lent is the time to form character. It is not enough that we refrain from doing some things during Lent. It is imperative that we do other things which will develop manhood and womanhood. So the key-note of Lent is this: "DO SOMETHING!"

We are men and women, and because we are men and women, we have a spiritual nature which separates us from the beasts. Well, then, let us do something this Lent which will strengthen and develop the spiritual side of our life.

Fill a mite box with pennies for the poor, and no doubt you will help someone, but fill the box with kind and right thoughts, as well as with your coppers, and you will make a step upward. Give a "hobo" his cup of coffee and his bread and butter, and you will help him; but give him a kind thought, a human smile, a pleasant word (not a sermon), and you will take a long stride toward true manhood and womanhood.

This single Lenten thought, then—is it not as broad as all humanity? is it not as world-wide as truth itself? For, after all, Lent is for every man, woman and child in whose breast there burns a desire for true manhood and true womanhood. Only the desire is not sufficient, and the Lenten season is but a short time. All our life here is the limit of time, and the desire must develop into work. Perfect manhood, perfect womanhood are the high goals Lent would point out to us. The time to start is now. The way to start is by work. Lent is a time for work.

Lenten Services

Lent is the period of forty days just preceding Easter. It is a time set apart by the Church for mental and spiritual culture. Lent is our special training time—for the culture of the will by the practice of self-denial;—for the culture of the mind by reading helpful books;—for the culture of the soul by directing it to things spiritual. Remember, Lenten self-denial is valuable only as a means to an end. Lent is a time for doing.

Holy Communion Ash Wednesday Morning (February 17), at eight o'clock.

At the Sunday Morning services during Lent, the sermon subjects will be: "Sin:—Its Nature, Meaning, Redemption, Forgiveness, Salvation."

Holy Communion will be celebrated every Friday Morning during Lent at eight o'clock. Other dates will be announced later.

(T. M. PRICE, Pastor.)

Sunday morning worship at 11 o'clock.

We intend to do you good; to give you the secret of being good and some one, I am told, has tho't that we ought to stop bothering you. I want to do you good, to be concerned in your welfare, to connect you with the Power House, but you think you know too much. A few turns to one of the four stations in town would characterize you as a seeker after truth, and you would be sure to see that you now think you see. The object of Josus was to offer a remedy to man's need, but He did not seek tribute. I keep inviting you to church because if you came, then you would not need it; and if you did not need it, then you would not get it. There is too much "manana" about mankind but with we men it is a question of back hair.

The Union Meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E will be in the Congregational Church, at 6:30 p m. Every one is invited.

Mid-week service on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Union Service on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock will be held in the Methodist Church. The Rev. Price will take a concrete example of two great nations who have kept the peace for one hundred years and have been without any implements of offense or defense for all that time. Come and hear what will show present war-like activities and preparation to be groundless. This condition will destroy the destruction of war and and undermines the fallacy of diplomncy more than many words, but words are sometimes needed. Come and hear of a boundary line, four hundred and sixty miles long, wholly protected by common sense without one fort save that of Reason.

Special Meetings.

Tuesday of next week, February 16th, meetings will be held at the Congregational Church at two and four o'clock in the afternoon, which are to be participated in by church officers and Sunday School workers.

The object of these meetings is the consultation, conference and oversight of the church, and the further development of the spirit of good fellowship.

At six o'clock, p. m., supper will be served by the ladies in the church parlors, at which the patronage of the public is solicited.

In the evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, the principal service of the day will be held, at which interesting addresses will be given by the visiting clergymen--Revs. Brooks and D. G. Yoakum, pastors of Berkeley churches; Rev. D. G. Harbutt, pastor of the Congregational Church at Kenwood, and Rev. T. M. Price, pastor of the Congregational Church of Sonoma. A cordial invitation to attend any or all of these services is extended the general public.

The Week's Record of Social Doings, Club Notes and Personal Movements.

Afternoon and Evening Card Parties Given

Miss Anna Pemberton was the gracious hostess to the members of the Bridge-Whist Club, Thursday afternoon of last week, at the comfortable home of her mother, Mrs. Shaw. Branches of graceful pepper enhanced the cozy interior wherein the afternoon was enjoyably passed by the sixteen ladies who assembled to match their skill at the ever-fascinating diversion. Mrs. Harold Pauli had the good fortune to score the highest number of points, winning the set of linen-covered, table service mats, the dainty handiwork of the hostess and a most useful, acceptable prize. The discussion of delicious refreshments rounded off a most pleasurable gathering.

Another successfully managed card party was the second of the series given by the ladies of Saint Barbara's Guild, Mrs. Wm. F. Clewe lending her beautiful home for the function, Friday night of last week.

The success attending the first evening at cards at which the Episcopal ladies were hostesses proved so very enjoyable that the second resulted in a much larger attendance despite the best efforts of Jupiter Pluvius to make an evening at home more enticing.

Five hundred was played, and with the announcement of the finals congratulations fell to the lot of Mrs. Ernest C. Campbell and James McElney on holding the winning scores. Mrs. Campbell received a unique basket china vase, and Mr. McElney was given a set of teakwood coasters.

Nothing more in a social way will be done by the ladies of Trinity Episcopal Church during the six weeks of the penitential season.

Business Session Held by the Woman's Club

The regular monthly business meeting of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, held Friday afternoon of last week, was also primary balloting for the new officers of the Club. Results were somewhat unsatisfactory owing to the limited number in attendance. The care of home and family require so much of the time and attention of several of the most capable of the members that the honors of office are refused of acceptance by those well fitted to serve in official capacity and increase the usefulness and popularity of the organization. The final balloting will take place next month, when definite decisions will be arrived at and authentic announcements made.

The Club voted to contribute the sum of one dollar monthly to assist the Travellers' Aid, which is the especial work of the Woman's Auxiliary Board of the P. P. I. E.

Golden Hour Club Entertains at Dancing Party.

The dancing party at Woodman's Hall, Friday night of last week, at which the young ladies of the Golden Hour Club were hostesses, was quite the jolly event anticipated by those who had been favored with invitations, and the number was unlimited, as the popular girls of the organization are favorites in social circles, and thoughtfully overlooked no friend. The capacity of the hall, as a result, was not sufficiently adequate to comfortably accommodate so large a company—but then, no one minds being a bit over-crowded at a dance.

The music furnished by Mrs. E. G. Perkins was greatly enjoyed, as the lady is acknowledged to be a pianist of exceptional ability—one of the finest in the valley.

Many compliments were showered upon the young ladies who arranged and managed the function, namely: Misses Nancy and Zoleta Bates, Mary Springer, Helen Antrim, Mildred Erickson, Norma Jansen and Ethel Shane.

Initial Dance at New Vineburg Inn Great Success.

"Just the best time ever!" was the unanimous verdict of the many who assembled to enjoy and contribute to the success of the initial dance given at the popular hostelry of A. W. Lehrke—the New Vineburg Inn, last Saturday night.

Sonoma sent down a large and representative party, who report the affair a success in every detail and Messrs. Lehrke and Howard Brown—proprietor and manager, respectively, of the Inn—as being the most assiduous and hospitable of hosts. These gentlemen were capably assisted by Messrs. Chas. Groskopf and Wm. Block, who managed the floor in excellent style.

To the splendid music provided by the Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra the "light fantastic was tripped" until midnight, when a bountiful supper was served.

New Vineburg Inn has attained enviable prestige since Mr. Lehrke exercised the wise judgment to place the management of the business in the efficient hands of Mr. Brown, who is a young man of fine character, business qualifications and of that pleasing, genial type of personality which is of countless value in his position and in the increase of popularity of New Vineburg Inn.

New England Supper To Be Served February 16

About forty ladies assembled in the elegant Napa-street home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Poppe, Tuesday afternoon, which was thrown open for the entertainment by the hostess of the Congregational Aid Society, of which Mrs. Poppe is a deeply interested and active worker.

Aside from its pleasant social features, the meeting was animated and interesting, as the Church work dated for Tuesday of next week, in connection with last night's entertainment by the Jubilee Concert Company, at which refreshments and candy were sold, necessitated the appointment of many committees.

Of a general nature the principal note of interest was the donating of ten dollars to the Travellers' Aid Society.

Attention was directed chiefly to the planning of a New England Supper—Boston baked beans and brown bread, with the accompanying toothsome accessories—to be served in the church parlors at six o'clock, next Tuesday evening, February 16th.

The following committee was named to manage the spread: Mesdames H. Appleton (chairman), J. Cooper, H. McAllister, M. H. Rowell, O. R. Wagner, Carrie A. Burlingame, A. S. Luce, W. W. Carter, A. Cooper, B. F. Campbell; Misses Anna Pemberton and Jeanette Cooper.

Mrs. Poppe, who was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. A. D. Lowell, served to her guests appetizing refreshments before the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Julius Fochetti, Jr., spent Saturday last with friends in the City of Roses.

H. W. West, of the F. T. Duhring Store, was a Sunday visitor in the metropolis.

Mrs. Jas. Steckmeyer entertained Mrs. George Fields, of San Francisco, at the cozy Steckmeyer home in El Verano last week.

The Misses Margaret More and Ellen Trueblood of the High School faculty enjoyed Saturday night at the grand opera in San Francisco.

Mrs. A. H. Bates is visiting in San Francisco, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Nauman. The latter has been on the sick list for a time, but is improving at this writing, we are pleased to note.

Mask Ball by Women of Woodcraft Tonight

All sections of the Sonoma Valley will unite with the devotees of Terpsichore of Glen Ellen and help to greet with befitting homage the mischievous sprite, Cupid, who'll be abroad in the land this eve of St. Valentine. Perhaps, 'twas with the thought in mind of "aiding and abetting" the tiny Love God in his pranks that the sympathetically-understanding Women of Woodcraft of our progressive little northern neighbor planned their ball for that date, and the social editor of the Index-Tribune hopes that, as a result of the thoughtfulness of the wise Glen Ellen matrons, her pen will be kept busy chronicling the sequels to charming romances or bethrothal announcements.

But returning to the event at hand—the masquerade ball, which takes place tonight at Chauvet Hall. The completed arrangements insure a thoroughly good time and the many Sonoma residents who have planned to attend the dance anticipate just such another jolly time as that enjoyed at New Vineburg Inn last Saturday night.

Mesdames C. J. Poppe and C. C. Weise, and Mr. L. Costa comprise the committee of arrangements.

Organization Effected of "The Poppy Club"

The Valley of the Moon boasts a new organization which, since it is to be dominated for the most part by the true spirit of the big and glorious Golden West, has been named "The Poppy Club." Four of our city's best liked and most enterprising young men—Joe McMullin, Ralph Evans, Paul Thomson and Warren Brown—are the originators, all of whom have broad, expansive, though somewhat conflicting, ideas as to the definite aim and object of the "The Poppies." Ralph and Joe argue for bachelor bliss in cozy quarters to be erected by the club on the proposed Picetti Terrace, with spare time devoted to manual training and a course in domestic science. To this plan, Paul and Warren object, and plead that the membership of the club include the refining influence of the gentler sex, with a thorough course in astronomy when the evenings of the late spring and summer are conducive to the best results from the interesting study.

Program of Song Service for February, 21st.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the Service of Song which was to have been given at the Congregational Church last Sunday night was postponed for a fortnight—till Sunday night, February 21st—when will be held the next Union Service meeting at the Congregational Church.

The program to be rendered under the direction of Prof. M. H. Rowell, as arranged, is as follows:

Organ Prelude.

Anthem: "Saviour When Night Involves the Sky," Choir.

Scriptures and Prayer.

Anthem, "Recessional," Choir.

Offertory, Violin Solo, Frank Knolle.

Song by the Congregation.

Anthem, "Hark, Hark My Soul," Choir.

Sermon, Rev. Edwin F. Brown.

Solo, "There Is a Green Hill Far Away," Prof. M. H. Rowell.

Anthem, "The Lord Is Exalted," Choir.

Benediction.

The Misses Mildred Burchard and Emma Johnson were prominent Sonoma educators to enjoy the week-end in San Francisco.

Miss Inez Reed is here from San Francisco at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Reed. With the coming of spring's balmy days, Miss Reed feels assured that perfect health will be given her.
